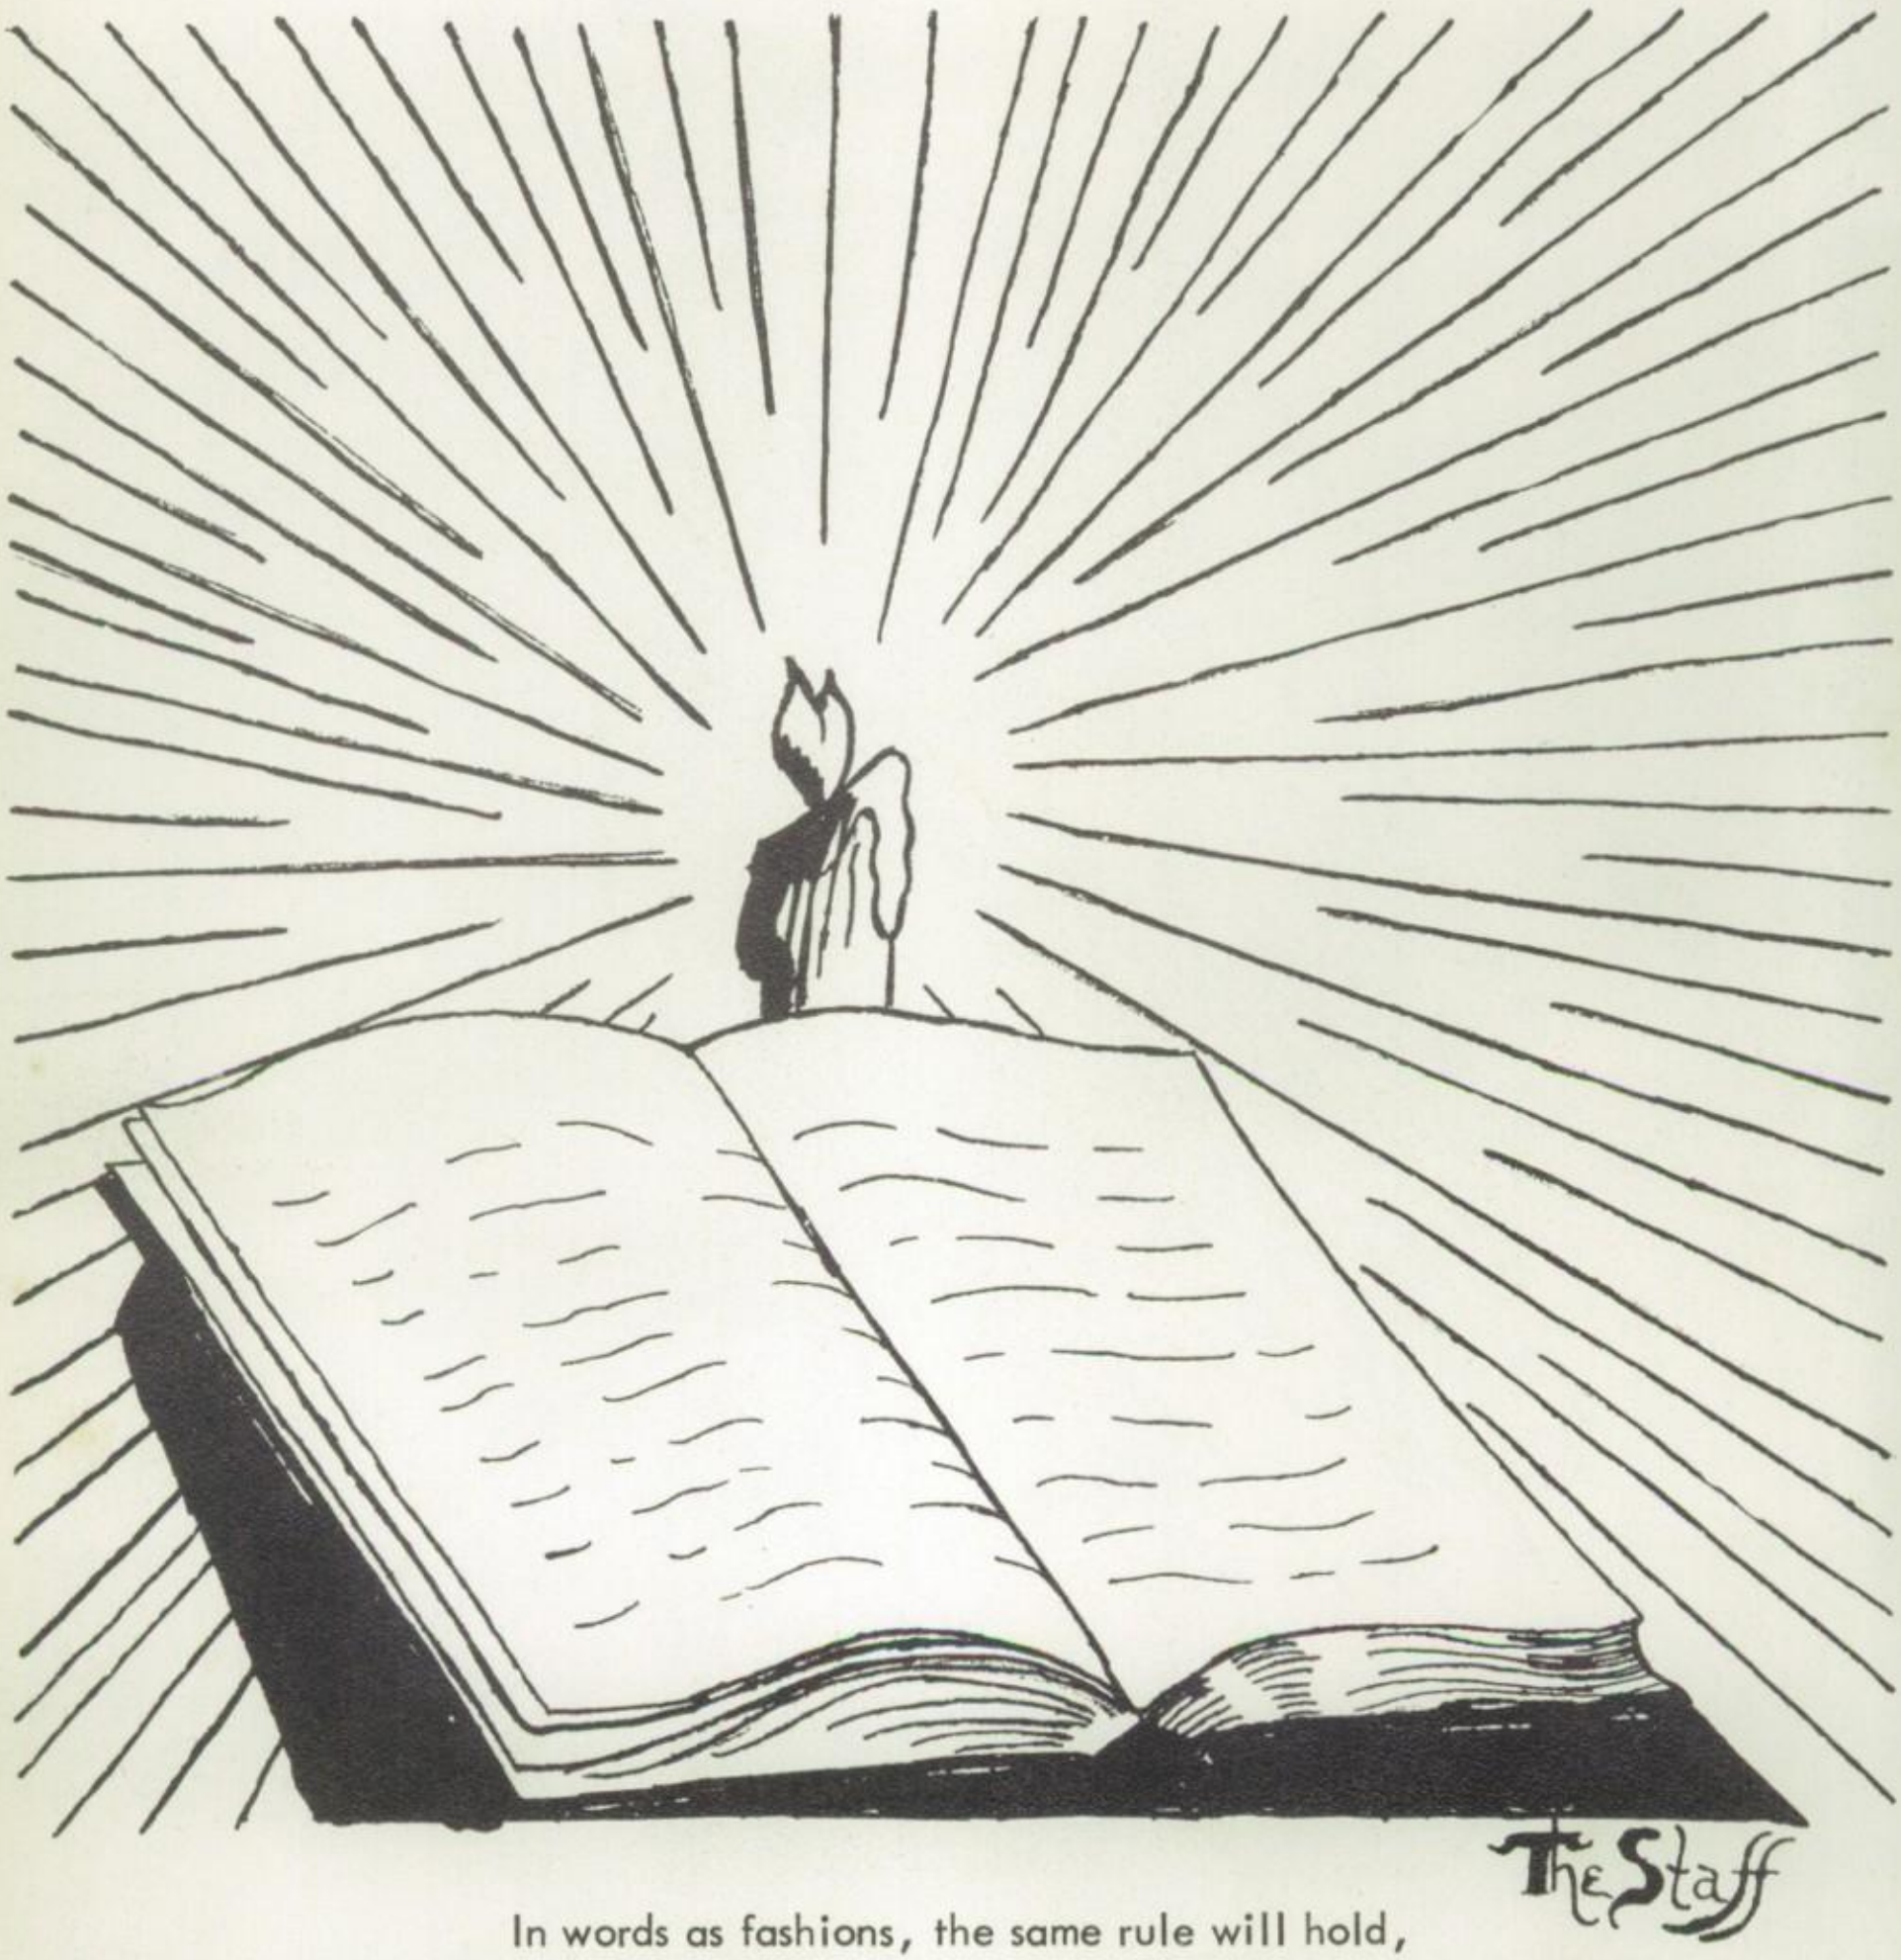
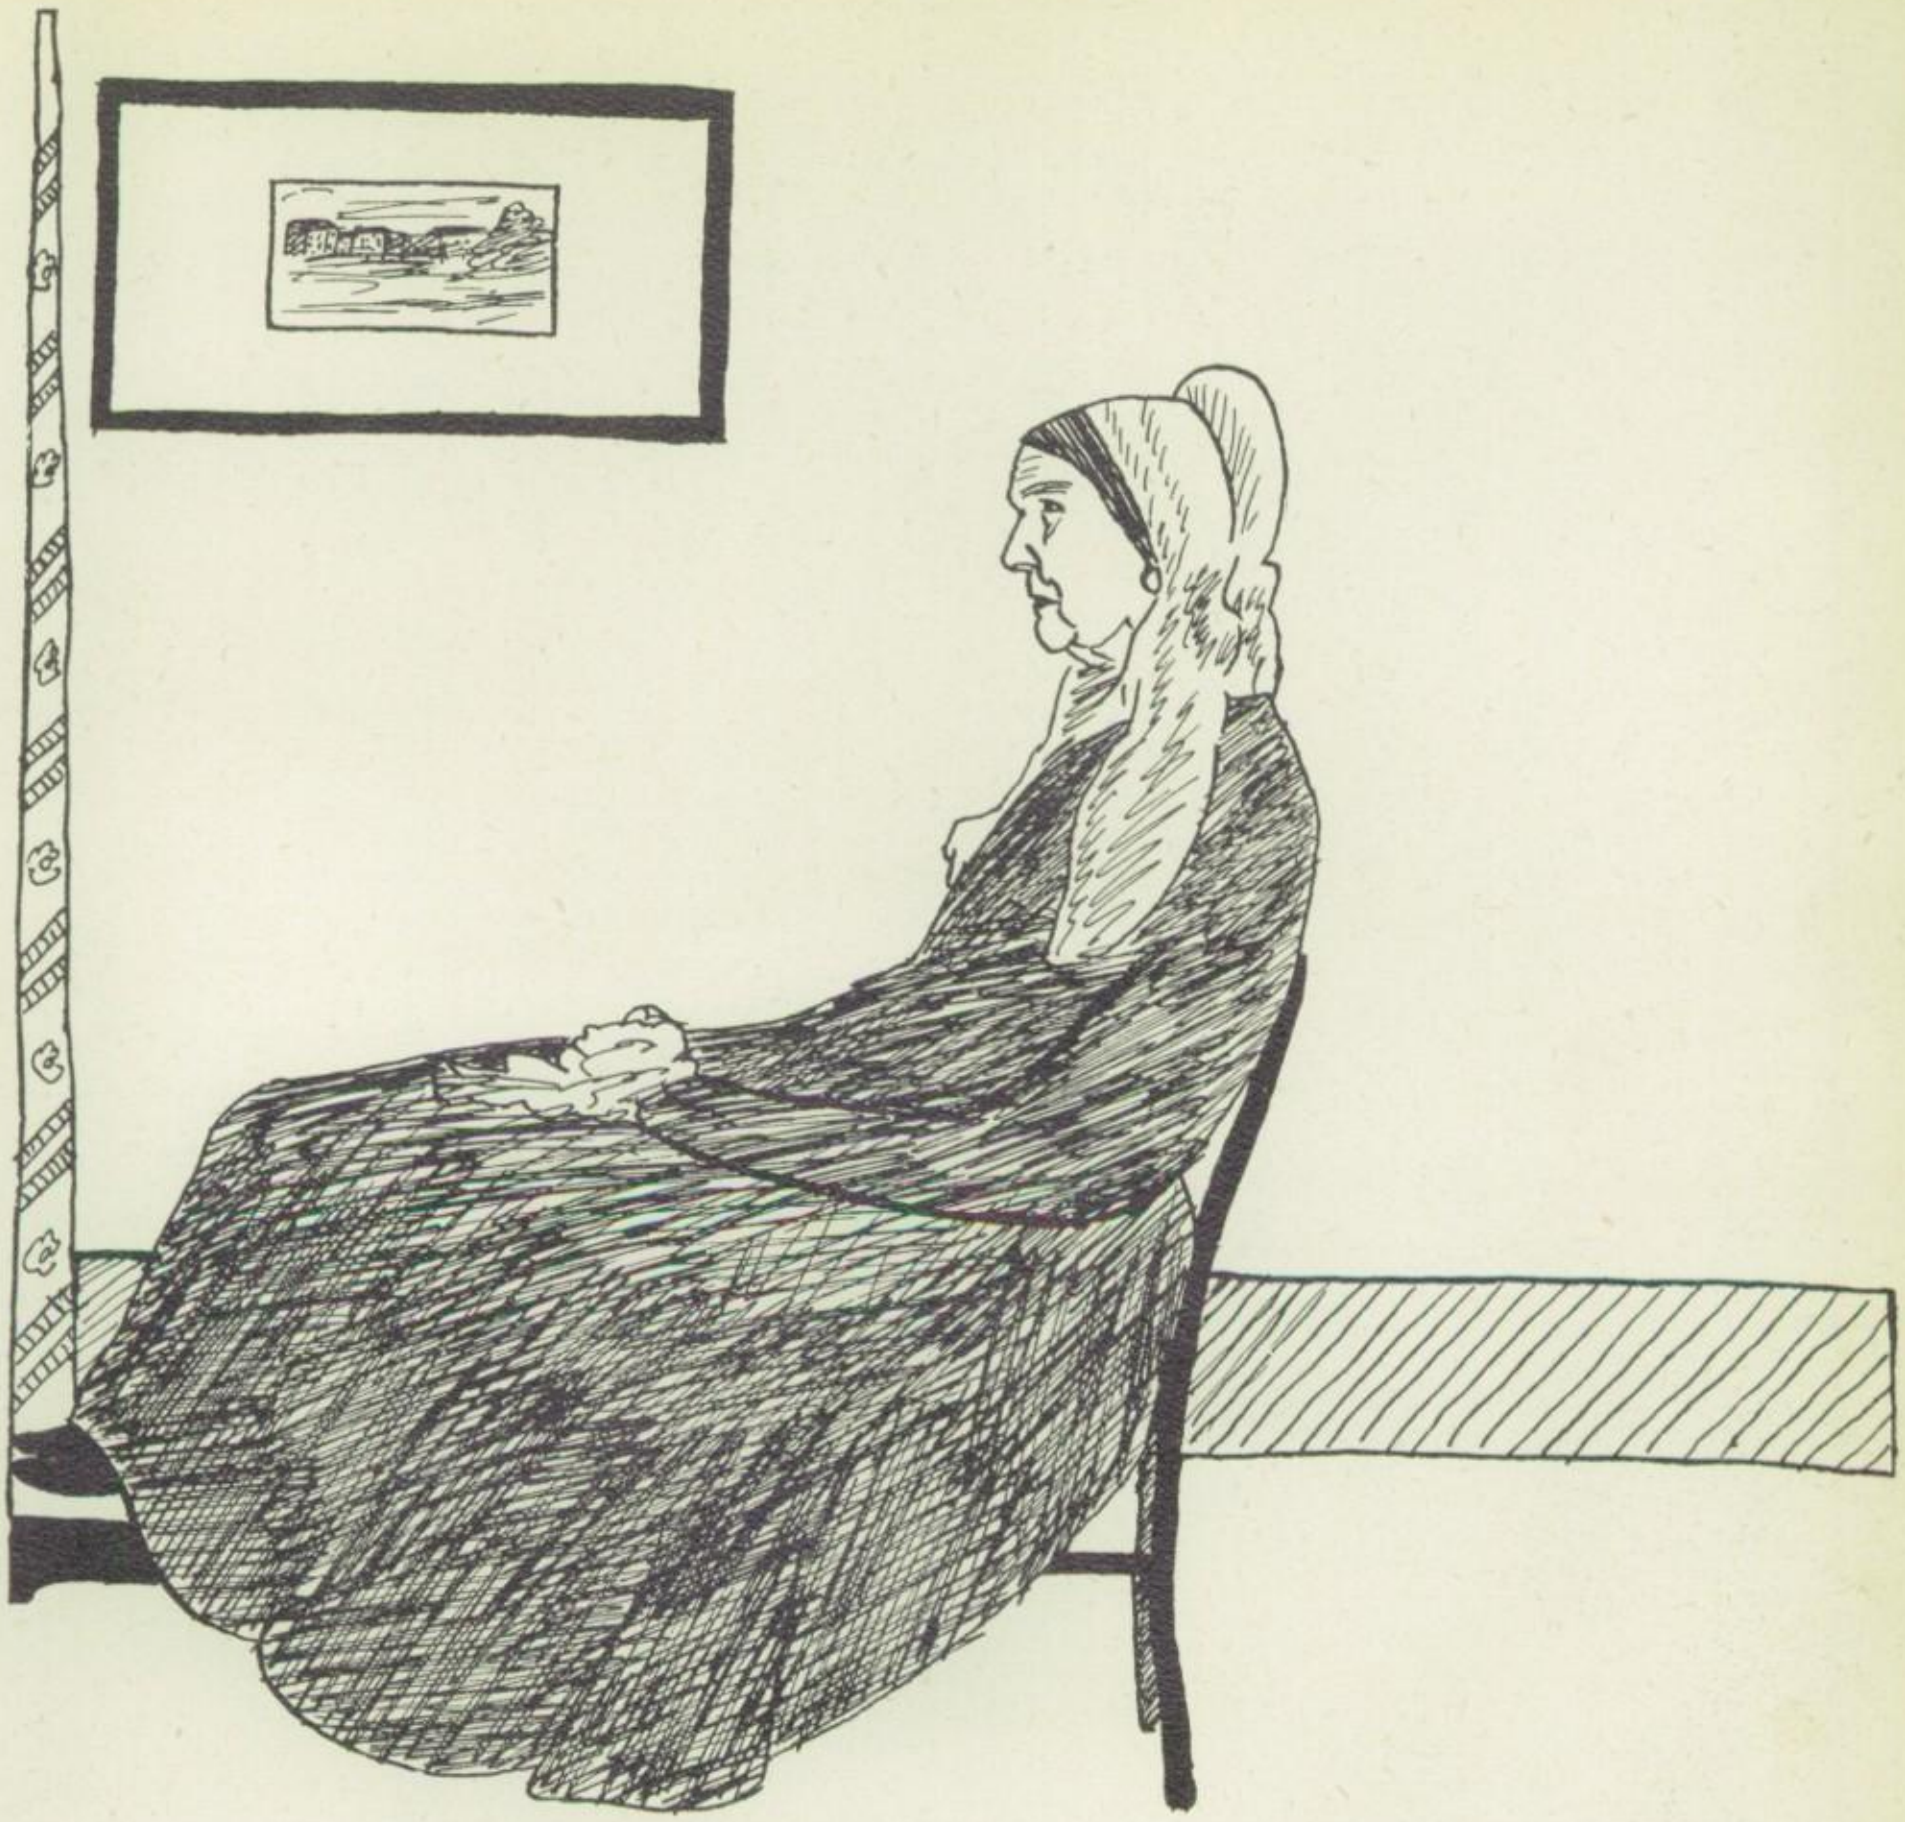
Foreword



In words as fashions, the same rule will hold,
Alike Fantastic if too new or old;
Be not the first by whom the new are tried,
Nor yet the last to lay the old aside.

Pope



We, the Seniors of 1956, dedicate this edition of our school yearbook to all mothers everywhere, but more especially to our own mothers who have guided our footsteps these many years.

A Wonderful Mother

God made a wonderful mother,
A mother who never grows old;
He made her smile of the sunshine,
And He molded her heart of pure gold;
In her eyes He placed bright shining stars,
In her cheeks, fair roses you see;
God made a wonderful mother,
And He gave that dear mother to me.

1955-56 Doings

We cannot think; our Minds are blank;
We've tried so hard and we made a good start.
After many days it all is finished,
And can you imagine without a blemish. (We hope)
With much labor and hard work,
We've made the Owl.
So now at long last we'll take a bow!
Juniors, you can step in now.

Goodbye

Almost a quarter of a century has passed since USECO published its first school annual. As we review those pages of yesteryear, a pleasant thought comes to mind—on some tomorrow this, the nineteen hundred and fifty-six edition, will take its place in your heart as a pictorial history of the "good ole' days."

We know this book will increase in value with the passing of each year, and are honored to have played a part in recording it.
